MR. EDITOR :- Any one who happened along Nuuanu Avenue, above the upper bridge, on Wednesday afternoon last, would have been a witness, however unwillingly, of a species of barbarous cruelty to an animal, that was shameful to humanity. It was on the premises of a certain Reverend gentleman ; it was the Reverend gentleman's horse which was being beaten unmercifully by three men, having been tied to a post for the purpose : and the beating was said to have been done by the Reverend gentleman's orders. He was absent, but a member of his family, on being which have happily existed with France for so expostulated with by a neighbor whose bumanity January, A. Does the Minister of the Interior approve of the Superintendent of Public Works making contracts for jobs outside of government work, and using the government tools for such purposes? Does the community at large approve of the

The Peddling Nuisance.

The Bill to license peddlars of goods, wares and merchandize, having been championed through the Assembly by the Minister of the Interior, has, we are sorry to say, received the Royal sanction,-doubtless through the same influence in the Cabinet,and will now become a law. And this too in the face of the following protest, signed by all the leading merchants and business men of the comthe subject as that put forward by this journal when the Act was first introduced. Whatever of taken up for consideration, on its second reading; moral and financial evil may result to the country at large through the legalizing of the peddling nuisance, be it remembered that it was vigorously promoted by the Minister of the Interior.

We the undersigned have seen with no little solicitude, that a Bill before your Hon. body to license peddling, has met with so much favor as to indicate its probable final passage. From the experience of the past, it was found necessary to prohibit peddling, as it was found to be injurious in ractice, both as it affected the morals, the financial whereupon the Committee rose and reported the nterests of the people, and the revenue of the Kingdom. We would therefore most earnestly petition your Hon. body to decline the enactment revenue. And your petitioners will ever pray.

from Committee on the Eurollment, reported that Hon. Mr. Kasi made a statement of the facts which had given rise to this petition, and stated the circumstances of the three public houses, the "Bank Exchange," the "Royal" and the "Bartlett Saloon," having been prosecuted for breaking the law in regard to selling spirits to natises. It was evident that even justice had not been done. Mr. Siders had done no more, and in fact not so much, in vis-lation of the law as had the keeper of one saloon, (Hughes) who was guilty of two offences immediately following each other, and who got off by paying a nominal fine, while Siders pays a thousand dollars and loses his business entirely. The other two saloons, equally guilty, are still running. He had been informed outside of the House that two Hon. members were interested in these two salsons that the "Bartlett" was mortgaged to one Hon. member, and that another Hon. member was the proprietor of the "Royal." A wrong and an injustice had evidently been done in this saloon lusiness, and to make it right, either Siders should get his thousand dollars back or the other two saloons should be served as he had been served.

His Ex. the Minister of the Interior said that the
